SCHEDULE "A"

1. The defendants, Donna Child (hereinafter "Child") and Artworld of Sherway (hereinafter "Artworld") agree with the allegations of fact contained in paragraphs 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 30 of the plaintiff's statement of claim.
2. The defendants have no knowledge of the allegations of fact contained in paragraphs 10 and 11 of the plaintiff's statement of claim.
3. The defendants deny all other allegations made within the plaintiff's statement of claim and put the plaintiff to the strict proof thereof.
4. The defendant, Artworld, is a corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of the Province of Ontario. At all material times Artworld operated as an art gallery located at the Sherway Gardens Mall in Toronto, Ontario where it sells various types of art to the public at large.
5. The defendant, Child, is an individual who normally resides in the Province of Ontario. Contrary to paragraph 3 of the claim, Child is not a sole proprietor but rather she is an employee of Artworld.
6. This matter involves a transaction whereby the plaintiff purchased a painting from Artworld on February 26, 2005 for the purchase price of $9,000.00 plus tax of $1,350.00. The painting is entitled, "Wheel of Life" and the artist of the painting is Norval Morrisseau.
7. The plaintiff is alleging that the painting is an imitation. The defendants state that in fact the painting in question is authentic as advertised and therefore the plaintiff's claim is without merit and should be dismissed with costs to be paid to the defendants on a substantial indemnity basis.
8. Contrary to the assertions in the statement of claim, at all material times Child was acting in her capacity as employee and officer of Artworld. None of her actions, of any sort or type, were done in her personal capacity. There is no basis for any action as against her personally.
9. With respect to paragraph 13 of the claim, the defendants did not have knowledge of the declaration until after the plaintiff had purchased the painting in question. On April 8, 2005, some 2½ months after the transaction had been completed, the defendant received an email disclosing the existence of the declaration but even then a copy of the declaration was not provided to the defendants.
10. There is currently litigation in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice involving several art galleries who have brought an action against individuals on the basis that these individuals are attempting to control the market of "Morrisseau artwork by falsely accusing galleries of having imitations of Mar art. At the same time, these individuals are promoting their own Morrisseau art as being the only authentic Morrisseau art in existence. The declaration state that there is evidence to suggest that the declaration is a forgery. In addition, the health of Mr. Morris at the time of the declaration being signed is questionable in that he had been suffering from advanced Parkinson's disease at that time and he subsequently died in December 2007.

11. The defendants state that there are numerous qualified appraisers and experts in the field of authenticating art that will substantiate the defendants claim that the painting in question is an authentic original Morrisseau painting.
12. The defendants emphatically deny any liability and ask that the plaintiff's claim be dismissed with costs awarded to the defendants.
13. The defendants deny any conspiracy or deception. At all material times up to and including the issuance of this amended defence the defendants believed the painting to be genuine. The defendants have confirmed the paintings pedigree and maintain the position that the painting is authentic.
14. The defendants assert that art work is not an investment and cannot be characterized as such. At no time did the plaintiff assert an intention to use the painting as an investment vehicle. Any loss associated with missed investment opportunity are too remote at law and not actionable as against the defendants.
