Plaintiff's Claim

Mr. Garth Cole through his direct and indirect ownership in www.morrisseau.com with Ritchie "Stardreamer" Sinclair has slandered the title to a painting of which I currently own. I now refer to Exhibit 'A' which is the homepage of www.morrisseau.com and Exhibit 'B' which is a picture of my painting and it's characterization on www.morrisseau.com. I now refer to Exhibit "B" and the picture of my painting labeled Inferior Counterfeit Morrisseau # 389 and a description of the painting.

Description: Inferior Counterfeit Norval Morrisseau>>>> In the opinion of Norval Morrisseau protégé, Ritchie "Stardreamer" Sinclair this is an image of an Inferior Counterfeit Norval Morrisseau painting.>>>Infererior Counterfeit >>> means counterfeit, fake, false, falsified, unauthorized, unguenuine, unreal, forged, forgery, descending into the inferior regions of the earth, poor in quality, substandard, less important, valuable, or worthy, bottom -rung, less, lesser, lower, nether, peon, subordinate, under, underneath, bent, bogus, copied, crock, deceptive, delusive, delusory, faked, fishy, fraudulent, imitation, misleading, mock, pseudo, sham.>>>>

This corresponds with Exhibit 'C' which is a copy the Glossary of terms as per the link on the www.morrisseau.com homepage.

The statements on www.morrisseau.com are clearly defamatory and untrue. Indeed, in addition to this painting the www.morrisseau.com web site has identified over 1,000 so called "fakes" by the late great native artist Norval Morrisseau. Some of these paintings are in the collection of public galleries. Moreover, this web site has even posted paintings as "fake" on www.morrisseau.com only to be labeled as authentic on the same web site at another point in time. Moreover, the web site www.morrisseau.com has even labeled the work of another artist as a "Genuine Norval Morrisseau".

I now turn to Exhibit "D" which is a picture of Norval Morrisseau painting called "Shaman". This is a painting taken for the catalogue of the Maslak McLeod Gallery. Now, as per Exhibit "E" we can see from a screen capture from www.morrisseau.com that this painting was labeled as Forged Morrisseau # 44. Yet, on another and different screen capture from the same web site it is now labeled as an "Authentic Norval Morrisseau photo # 309 as per Exhibit "F".

I now turn to Exhibit "G" which is labeled Inferior Counterfeit Morrisseau # 604. It describes the painting in the manner above as mine. This painting is currently part of the permanent collection of the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia. It was donated by John De Witt. I spoke to Troy Wagner, Assistant Register 1 902 424 2987 . This fact was further confirmed by the Curator of Collection, Shannon Parker 1 902 424 8457.

After slandering the title of painting in galleries in Nova Scotia Mr. Cole through www.morrisseau.com has also call "fakes" or Counterfeit inferior Norval Morrisseau's the collections of Norval Morrisseau paintings in other galleries throughout the world. I will gladly provide the court with copies and proof of such.

I now turn to Exhibit "H" which is Labeled Inferior Counterfeit Morrisseau # 853. It is also described in the same manner as the rest. It was sold at Heffel's auction house for $ 19,000 on the Heffel on line auction of May 2006 as per Exhibit "T".

I now refer to Exhibit "J" which is another screen capture from www.morrisseau.com. In it a picture of a painting is labeled as an "Authentic Norval Morrisseau". However, the painting is not even done by Norval Morrisseau. As per Exhibit "K" the artist is Richard Bedwash . I further enclose and highlight as per Exhibit "L" a listing a serigraph of the original on a Goggle Search.

Thus, we have the prospect where this web site www.morrisseau.com has identified over 1,000 paintings by Norval Morrisseau including the one subject of this suit as being "fake" etc. I believe I have pointed out the fact that these posting are clearly defamatory and untrue. Further, they are subject to suit, as these defamatory statements are not protected by any absolute or qualified privilege.

Mr. Cole has a direct and indirect ownership interest in www.morrisseau.com through Friendship Enterprises, the canada2.com web site and through Stardreamer Netmedia enterprises which are all not registered and run out of their apartment as per Exhibit "M" and Exhibit "N". If the court please it may refer to Exhibit "A" and notice the reference to court file # CV-08-00366828 where Mr. Sinclair has already admitted to being the owner of www.morrisseau.com.

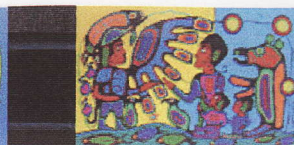

Mr. Zak Muscovitch is attached to this case because no is no longer acting as a "lawyer" for the owners of www.morrisseau.com ; he is by his actions become apart of the scheme to defraud and spread falsehoods into the general marketplace for the artwork of Norval Morrisseau. Mr. Muscovitch was counsel for Mr. Cole in Toronto.com V Ritchie Sinclair and Garth Cole in T-1163-99. He even represented Ritchie in his dealing with an auctioneer who sold off the contents of Mr. Sinclair's unpaid storage locker fees as per Exhibit "O". More recently Mr. Muscovitch (through Ritchie Sinclair) substantially interfered in the sales process in which the large sale of a piece of work by Norval Morrisseau did not go through due to their actions. After the sale went south, Mrs. Zak Muscovitch tried unsuccessfully to sell several works' of art that she purported to by Norval Morrisseau. It is my contention that Mr. Cole and Mr. Sinclair had no money and gave Mr. Muscovitch supposed Norval Morrisseau works' of art in lieu of money. After realizing that he was duped Mr. Muscovitch played along with the scheme to limit his liability because he sold indirectly/directly through Mr. Sinclair several pieces of artwork that was painted by Ritchie as the works' by Norval.

By representing Mr. Sinclair in CV-08-00366828 Mr. Muscovitch is presenting and prorogating facts which he knows are demonstratively false and libelous. Does Mr. Muscovitch actually expect the court to believe that he believes his client can call over 1,000 works' of art from Norval Morrisseau false with any reasonable expectation that his client is telling the truth? As a lawyer Mr. Muscovitch is of course allowed to defend his client. He can't however prepare court filings and state facts in evidence or affidavit form which he knows are false and untrue. This is what he has done in CV08-00366828.

Can anybody believe is that it is just coincide that Mrs.Zak Muscovitch started shopping around her and her husbands collection of Norval Morrisseau paintings just after he and his clients' actions resulted in a sale not going through.

To conclude, I claim damages of $10,000. Mr. Cole has slandered the title to the painting and as such he has questioned it's authenticity and ability to re sell it. I will be able to quantify these damages at trial or the pre settlement conference. Mr. Muscovitch is well aware of the damages caused by the existence of this web site due to his representation of Mr. Sinclair in CV-08-00366828. Moreover, given the number of painting deemed "fake" on www.morrisseau.com and given the two year period for possible suit in small claims court I think Mr. Muscovitch is going to be a busy man. Moreover, given the two year period and increase in claims up to $25,000 next year Mr. Muscovitch will be very busy. Did I also mention that the new limit for suit under the Simplified Procedure (Rule 76) is $100,000 starting next year. Yes, indeed Mr. Muscovitch will be a busy man.

"I have always been attracted to religious paintings, but only the ones that had that mystical or supernatural quality in them, especially Saint Teresa by Bernini. Just looking at Saint Teresa I get some kind of vibrations from it. I can close my eyes and feel them. That's great art, and it brings on that tingling sexual feeling. Other saints, like Saint Sebastian, do that as well. But the Christ figure was always the one that was dominant for me. That's why I say that Christ to me is still the greatest shaman, and that is why some religious visions are so complex, and so very hard to explain to people"

The Heartfelt project is a not-for-profit Friendship Enterprises goodwill initiative inspirationally originated in September, 1997, by Garth Cole and Ritchie Sinclair.

Garth Cole is a Supervising City of Toronto Information Officer who has spent the last twelve years speaking one-on-one with thousands of Torontonians about the 3 R's, the environment and their personal responsibility for the welfare of our community. Garth's expertise in public relations and community education foundation the "eye to eye", co-operative, common ground approach of Friendship Enterprises.

Ritchie Sinclair is the principle developer and the primary creative force behind the Canada2 community network. He has a lifetime of study and leadership in the arts along with a degree in design. He is the protege of Ontario's Ojibwa Grand Shaman and world renowned Native artist, Norval Morrisseau.

In considering future objectives:

The Canada 2 Network as envisioned is a network of 'web' channels that in presentation speak to viewers with the language of 'TV'. We expect Canada2 to become a significant force in the (soon to be) medium of interactive television. The fundamental community orientated infrastructure already in place will be positioned perfectly when the two technologies (TV and the Internet), for all practical purposes, become one.

The Canada2 Network through privately owned will be transferred into the responsible stewardship of the appropriate communities when fully operational.

We also plan to use the Canada2 model to facilitate the continuance of the programme world wide. Together we have the potential to help create the global village!

THE CANADA2 FOUNDERS

The Canada 2 Project is the culmination of concepts that began many years ago and have through time been nurtured into realization. The principle architects have a consistently proven track record for carrying out their projects with both creative vision and integrity. They are...

THE CANADA2 NETWORK

Canada2 is a Network of 30 Website micro-networks that will permanently serve Canadian communities. Two website networks, "Canada2.net and Canada2.ca" support the needs of the other twenty eight websites. Canada2.ca will be our general filtering agent presenting a synthesis of our community micro-networks. Canada2.net provides an online centre for backend services and Canada2.com provides an overview of the entire network. The Canada2.net website facilitates Canada-wide operations and will eventually be the online organizational headquarters of the entire network.

The 18 websites listed below, along with the foundational Canada2.com, Canada2.net, and Canada2.ca domains, and the eight international extensions are:

Dear Sirs:

RE: Property of Ritchie Sinclair

I am the solicitor for Mr. Ritchie Sinclair. I have represented Mr. Sinclair and his family in connection with their personal and business interests for 6 years.

It has come to my attention that Centron Self Storage-Toronto ("Centron") has purported to sell my client's property, paintings in particular (the "personal property"), which had been stored at Centron pursuant to a storage contract. The storage contract is subject to the provisions of the Repair and Storage Lien Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.25 (the "Act"). I am advised that certain items from amongst the personal property are now being offered for sale by Randy Potter carrying on business as Randy Potter Estate Auctions ("Randy Potter").

I am advised that all attempts to obtain an accounting of the personal property and any proceeds from any purported sale of same, has been refused or neglected by Centron.

Accordingly, Centron is hereby put on notice that my client demands an immediate accounting of all items that were the subject of a purported sale, pursuant to section 16(1)(g) of the Act.

Furthermore, my client's position is that Centron failed to abide by numerous provisions of the Act, and in particular failed to provide my client with proper Notice of the purported sale pursuant to section 27(1).

My client has reason to believe that Centron, its employees, or agents, failed to conduct a public sale as understood by the Act, and Randy Potter was not in fact a purchaser in good faith as understood by section 20(1) of the Act and that Centron, its employees, or agents conspired with Randy Potter to breach section 15(5) of the Act.

Finally, my client has compelling evidence of numerous negligent or fraudulent charges that were applied to him by Centron.

Accordingly, my client holds both of you responsible for all damages and demands that no further disposition of the personal property be made prior to resolution of this matter by Court Order pursuant to section 23(1) of the Act.

If we do not receive the accounting and written assurance that you will not be taking any further steps to dispose, sell, encumbrance, or convey my client's personal property, and in particular that my client's property will not be sold by Randy Potter at an apparent auction on February 14, 2004, my client will commence proceedings against all concerned and reserves his right to seek an interim injunction restraining disposition and a mandatory order compelling an accounting. We will be seeking all court costs and lawyers fees in addition to all damages.

We must hear from you by 5:00 pm on February 12, 2004 to avoid proceedings.

Govern Yourselves Accordingly,

Zak Muscovitch
